

KORI

CLASSIC METHOD

PAS DOSE

ABV 12,5%

Classic method – made only with Bellone grapes an ancient native variety cultivated on the lava hillsides of the Cori district. Produced under the traditional classic method which uses second fermentation in bottle, matured on the lees for minimum 36 months. Intense straw yellow hues usher in a fine; persistent perlage, the nose is intense and fragrant, with delicate fruity sensations of apple and citrus laced with yeasty notes conjuring up bread crust. The zesty palate is fresh and elegant, with well-balanced sweetness.

KORI

CLASSIC METHOD

ABV 12,5%

In late August, meticulously selected Bellone grapes are picked carefully by hand and stored in small crates, then pressed whole with a maximum yield of 50%. Fermentation is the traditional bottle method for sparkling wines, and it is then left on the lees for a minimum 36 months. Vibrant straw yellow, a fine, lingering perlage, and an intense, fragrant nose, with delicate hints of apple, log apple, and candied citrus fruits. Yeasty notes reminiscent of bread crust and biscuit. Fresh and elegant.

CESANESE - LAZIO IGT
ABV 13%

LELIO
NERO BUONO - LAZIO IGT
ABV 13%

QUINTO
BELLONE - LAZIO IGT
ABV 13%

Homage to our producer Argeo, this wine is obtained from 100% Cesanese, an ancient grape variety from Latium, cultivated on the volcanic grounds on the hills of Cori. Low yields per hectare, selection of the grapes and an accurate vinification.

It has a strong personality with an intense ruby red colour, intense nose with balsamic scents, delicate palate, harmonic, with great complexity.

Named after our member Lelio, this wine is obtained, wine of refined elegance obtained entirely from the vinification of Nero Buono, an ancient grape variety of millennial tradition, recuperated and relaunched by Cincinnato thanks to research and testing which have documented its particular qualitative characteristics. Ruby red colour with purple highlights; intense and fragrant nose with scents of red fruits; delicate fruity palate, harmonic, with an elegant complexity; suitable to be paired throughout the meal with strong tasting dishes.

Wine of refined elegance, obtained entirely from the Bellone grapes, an ancient grape variety is also known as "bread grape" soft and delicate skin. Low yields per hectare and an accurate vinification make this a fragrant and delicately fruity wine. Brilliant straw yellow colour; delicate fruity nose, yellow peach, hawthorn; fragrant, fresh palate with mineral notes.

BOMBO

BELLONE - LAZIO IGT

ABV 11,50%

Cincinnati likes to keep its process as natural and local as possible, and you can taste that in these fresh pét nat. Bombo white is made from bellone grapes, grown without any pesticides in order to protect the soil. Totally unoaked and vegan wine. The result is a complex natural white, with notes of lemon and brioche — keep it simple and serve with a crisp salad and grilled fish.

BOMBO

NERO BUONO - LAZIO IGT

ABV 11,50%

Bombo rosé is as juicy and unfiltered as any teenage tryst. The Nero buono grapes are hand-harvested and vinified with a low-intervention. This 100% vegan and low sulphur wine that brings bags of concentrated red berries, soft tannins and moreish salinity. Serve this chilled before tucking into a BBQ spread and you'll never look back.

WHITE WINE

PANTALEO

GRECO - LAZIO IGT

ABV 13 %

A wine with a great personality from 100% greco, an ancient grape variety grown in the eponymous area of the district of Cori. Fermented in steel, refined in bottle for 6 months. Intense yellow with golden reflections, a delicate floral nose; tangy mouth, fresh with unmistakable mineral notes.

CASTORE
BELLONE - LAZIO IGT
ABV 13%

A wine of refined elegance embodying all the traits of its terroir, named after the mythical Dioscuri temple, a homage to the ancient temple of Castor and Pollux, whose mighty ruins are a stunning element in Cori's archaeological heritage. This pure Bellone is brilliant straw yellow with a delicately fruity nose, and notes of white-fleshed peaches and hawthorn. Fermented in steel.

PUNTINATA
MALVASIA - LAZIO IGT
ABV 13%

A pure Malvasia Puntinata, the distinctive grape with its black dots that make it so unique when ripening. Straw-yellow colour with light golden reflections, delicately fruity bouquet, with hints of apple, citrus and yellow-fleshed fruit, hints of sage and bitter almond. Crisp, structured, lively.

ILLIRIO
CORI DOC - BIANCO
ABV 13%

Illirio - from the name of a characteristic hill in the territory of Cori: clayey soil, finely structured; excellent sun exposure. Between soils and climate and careful vinification gives a harmonious and slightly fruity. Blended from three of the district's most typical grape varieties: Bellone, Malvasia Puntinata, and Greco. A stylish, minerally mouth with a fruit-laden, fragrant nose. Fermented in steel.

ERCOLE

NERO BUONO - LAZIO IGT

ABV 13,5%

A pure Nero Buono, from the local heirloom variety cultivated on the lava soils of the Cori hills. Ercole is named after the Temple of Hercules (I sec. a.C.) the archaeological remains of which enrich Cori's heritage. Low yields per hectare, selected grapes aged one year in oak barrels make this an original, exclusive wine. Intense ruby red in colour, the soft, dry, full-bodied mouth hints the undergrowth, black berry fruits, with notes of sweet cocoa in the finish. Lingering harmonious fragrance.

POLLUCE

NERO BUONO - LAZIO IGT

ABV 13 %

Named after the mythical Dioscuri, a homage to the ancient temple of Castor and Pollux, whose mighty ruins are a stunning element in Cori's archaeological heritage. This pure Nero Buono is a wine of refined elegance from an heirloom variety whose origins are lost in the mists of time, revived and relaunched thanks to research and experimentation that refined its unique qualitative traits. It's refined one year in stainless steel vats. Intense in colour this delicate wine is harmonious, with stylish complexity.

ARCATURA

CESANESE - LAZIO IGT

ABV 13,5 %

A pure Cesanese from the local heirloom Lazio variety cultivated on the Cori hills. Low yields per hectare, selection of the grapes and an accurate vinification with light refining in wood barrels make this an exclusive and unique wine. It has a strong personality, an intense ruby red colour, with an intense nose played out on notes of bottled cherries and balsamic hints for stylish layering.

RAVEROSSE

CORI DOC - ROSSO

ABV 13 %

A blend of Nero Buono, Montepulciano and Cesanese. From vineyards cultivated on red limestone spurs connecting the heights of the Lepini Mountains to the volcanic hills of the Cori countryside. The heat that permeates this rock during the day, slowly oozes into the vineyards at night, guaranteeing grapes of the finest quality. The wine is ruby-red in colour, harmonious with hints of ripe red berries.

CINCINNATO

THE CINCINNATO LEGACY: MORE THAN 70 YEARS OF HISTORY, 550 HECTARES OF LAND, 105 GROWER FAMILIES, AND THE ENTIRE RURAL COMMUNITY OF CORI.

Cincinnato is deeply conscious of the importance of typicity and biodiversity, and for this reason has always been committed to regenerating and showcasing native grape varieties such as Nero Buono and Bellone.

For over 20 years it has invested substantial human and economic resources in a challenging quality project, aiming to improve the product and advance the winery.

The production protocol adopted involves meticulously defined vineyard procedures, a harvesting calendar, and scrupulous vinification processes.

The winery is renowned for its environmental efforts including organic methods in the rows, a photovoltaic system ensuring independent power generation, and local distribution using natural gas-fuelled vehicles. Last but not least, the 19th-century farmhouse among the vines, with views over the Circeo promontory, is now a holiday facility offering rural accommodation and top-quality dining. Its scenic country setting and elegant style make it perfect for ceremonies, conferences, and corporate meetings.

ENYO
BELLONE - CORI DOC
ABV 13,5%

Enyo is our tribute to the Roman goddess Bellona. We use only the best grapes from our top Bellone vines. Short maceration on the skins, lees contact, malolactic fermentation and a year of aging in stainless steel tank vat. Enyo glimmers with golden yellow reflections, fragrant with exotic fruit and citrus notes. The palate shows fruity with a burst of freshness. Velvety and mouth-filling, with an intense and lingering mineral finale.

KORA
NERO BUONO - CORI DOC
ABV 14%

This monovarietal Nero Buono pays homage to our town. The grapes, from our own vineyards, have excelled over time for sheer quality. Yields per hectare are very low at around 60 quintals. Harvest takes place from the last ten days of September to early October. The wine is cask-aged for two years it as intense ruby-red colour, with a lean palate, well-structured, with hints of leather and forest floor, balsamic notes, and a harmonious, persistent fragrance.
